Subject index*

Abdominal angina (Riley et al.), 804 (CPC)
Abnormalities, T-wave, pre-existing, effect of potassium on (Surawicz), 824
Absence of arch of aorta, malformation complex of—Steidele's complex (Lie), 615
Action potential, transmembrane, relationship of electrocardiogram to (Surawicz), 814
Activation, ventricular, time-normalized correlation with vectorcardiogram (Boineau et al.), 64
Addicts, heroin, pulmonary valve regurgitation secondary to bacterial endocarditis in (Massumi et al.), 308
Adenoma of parathyroid, hyperparathyroidism secondary to, with previously unreported arrhythmia (Voss and Drake), 235
Adhesions, pericardial and pleuropericardial, diffuse fibrous and fibrinous, related to old myocardial infarct and tumor metastases from primary carcinoma of breast (Kaplan et al.), 245 (CPC)
Adrenergeric, beta-, antagonist, propranolol, effect on blood flow in coronary and other vascular fields (Nayler et al.), 207 blockade, hemodynamic responses to (Shen et al.), 669 with hypertrophic obstructive cardiomyopathy (Cherian et al.), 140 (Annot.)
  receptors in coronary circulation (Parratt), 137 (Annot.)
Age, effect on splitting of second heart sound in patients with atrial septal defects (Castle), 468
Alcoholic lung disease, hypothesis (Burch and DePasquale), 147
Alcoholism, chronic, myocardial depression accompanying (Maines and Aldinger), 55
Aldosterone, influence on inotropic effect of angiotensin and norepinephrine in isolated cardiac muscle (Lefer), 674
Allergy, digitalis (Lyon and DeGraff), 712 Alternans, pulsus and electrical, due to presence of mitral caged ball-valve prosthesis (Weber et al.), 110 sustained, during hypothermia (Floyd and Dillon), 765 Amines, vasoactive, in treatment of shock, 436 (B. Rev.)
Anatomic considerations in diagnosis of positional anomalies of heart; significance of atrial situs (Shaher et al.), 32 Anesthesia for open heart surgery, 577 (B. Rev.)
  surgical, hemodynamic effects of angiotensin during (Wallace et al.), 326 Aneurysm(s), berry, cerebral, natural history (Crompton), 567 (Annot.)
  complicating infarction of anterolateral wall of left ventricle due to occlusion of anterior descending coronary artery (Kaplan et al.), 245 (CPC) intracranial, natural history (du Boulay), 723
Aneurysmal degeneration of arterial homografts (Barner and DeWeese), 289 (Annot.)
Angina, abdominal (Riley et al.), 804 (CPC) pectoris, catecholamine secretion and sympathetic nervous responses to emotion in men with and without (Nestel et al.), 227
Angiocardiographic and anatomic correlations in case of persistent common atrioventricular canal with deformed anterior mitral valve leaflet without mitral insufficiency (Schlesinger et al.), 742 contrast media rapidly injected into heart and great vessels, hemodynamic effects (Krovitz et al.), 525 study of positional anomalies of heart; significance of atrial situs (Shaher et al.), 41 Angiocardiography of congenital heart diseases, atlas (in German), 722 (B. Rev.)

Apexcardiography, use in coronary heart disease, and reproducibility (Ginn et al.), 168 Arrhythmia(s), cardiac, mechanisms and therapy, 436 (B. Rev.)
digitalis-induced, concealed, unmasked by electrical stimulation of heart (Castellanos et al.), 484 due to digitalis toxicity (Lyon and DeGraff), 710 previously unreported, with cardiac manifestations of hyperparathyroidism (Voss and Drake), 235 unusual, after corrective surgery for transposition of great vessels (Zuberbuhler and Bauersfeld), 752 use of digitalis in (Lyon and DeGraff), 428 ventricular, after precordial electric shock (Donoso et al.), 595 Arterial catheterization, repeated, in man, analysis of complications (Levin et al.), 475 dilution curves, peripheral, in appraisal of left ventricular diastolic volume (Lewis et al.), 165 disease, peripheral, 437 (B. Rev.)
homographs, aneurysmal degeneration (Barner and DeWeese), 289 (Annot.)
pressure, effect of slowing heart rate by paired or coupled stimulation of atria on (Lister et al.), 362
Arteriosclerosis in wild rhesus monkeys (Chawla et al.), 85
Artery, coronary, disease, value of coronary cinearteriography in investigation and treatment (McGuire and Chou), 294 mesenteric, insufficiency (Riley et al.), 804 (CPC) renal, anomalies, and hypertension (Robertson et al.), 296 subadventitial fibroplasia of, disease of young women (McCormack et al.), 602 subclavian, left, kinked, and bicuspid aortic valve, with pseudocoarctation of aorta, possible cause of subclavian steal (Lochaya et al.), 369
Asthma, conference on, papers, 436 (B. Rev.)
Asynchronous pacing of heart, fundamentals (Furman), 267
Atherosclerosis, coronary severe, with old occlusion of anterior descending coronary artery and recent thrombosis of right main coronary artery (Kaplan et al.), 245 (CPC)
Atria, paired or coupled stimulation of, hemodynamic effect of slowing heart rate by (Lister et al.), 362
Atrial septal defect, splitting of second heart sound in, variables affecting (Castle), 468 situs, significance in diagnosis of positional anomalies of heart, anatomic and embryologic considerations (Shaher et al.), 32 angiocardiographic study (Shaher et al.), 41 tachycardia, paroxysmal, associated with ECHO 9 virus infection (Cherry et al.), 681 Atrioventricular canal, common, persistent, deformed anterior mitral valve leaflet without mitral insufficiency in, anatomic and angiocardiographic correlations (Schlesinger et al.), 742 conduction and potassium (Surawicz), 822 Atrioventricular—Cont'd
dissociation with S-A interference (ventricular capture), A-V interference (atrial capture), and reciprocating beating, case of "incomplete" retrograde unidirectional A-V block (Louvros and Costeas), 240
Auscultatory findings in Ebstein's anomaly (Genton and Blount), 403

Bacterial endocarditis, emergency replacement of valves in (Hurley et al), 798 isolated systolic click with (LeBauer et al.), 534
pulmonary valve regurgitation secondary to, in heroin addicts (Massumi et al.), 308
Bacteriuria, role of hydralazine in prevention, in hypertensive man, 574 (Letter to Editor)
Ballistocardiography and cardiovascular dynamics, 437 (B. Rev.)
Ball-valve prosthesis, caged, mitral, pulsus and electrical alternans due to (Weber et al.), 110
Berry aneurysms, cerebral, natural history (Crompton), 567 (Annot.)
Beta-adrenergic antagonist, propranolol, effect on blood flow in coronary and other vascular fields (Nayler et al.), 207
blockade, hemodynamic responses to (Shen et al.), 669
in hypertrophic obstructive cardiomyopathy (Cherian et al.), 140 (Annot.)
Bicuspid aortic valve and kinked left subclavian artery with pseudocoarctation of aorta, possible cause of subclavian steal (Lochaya et al.), 369
Block, A-V, unidirectional, retrograde, "incomplete," case of atrioventricular dissociation with S-A interference (ventricular capture), A-V interference (atrial capture), and reciprocating beating (Louvros and Costeas), 240 heart, control of recurrent ventricular fibrillation by transvenous pacing in absence of (Lew and March), 794 Blockade, beta-adrenergic, hemodynamic responses to (Shen et al.), 669
in hypertrophic obstructive cardiomyopathy (Cherian et al.), 140 (Annot.)
Blockpnea on effort in emphysematous patients, diagnostic challenge (Chevalier), 579 Blood flow, coronary, effect of propranolol on (Nayler et al.), 207 in idiopathic mural endomyocardiopathy (Brink and Lewis), 339 pH, abnormalities, relationship of electrocardiogram to (Surawicz), 828 vessels, pathologic lesions, in wild rhesus monkeys (Chawla et al.), 85 volume, pulmonary, and cardiac output in dogs, comparison of three indicator-dilution methods (Sanchez et al.), 665
Bony metaplasia experimentally induced in heart, histogenesis (Selye et al.), 195
Boston terrier, primary tumor of glomus pulmonale producing pulmonary stenosis in (Herrero and Ecklund), 188
Bronchitis, chronic, in case of rheumatic heart disease (Krakower et al.), 542 (CPC)

Caged ball-valve prosthesis, mitral, pulsus and electrical alternans due to (Weber et al.), 110
Calcium exchange in cardiac muscle, basic mechanism of drug action (Nayler), 379

Calcium—Cont'd
ions, effect on contraction and relaxation of cardiac muscle (Nayler), 382, 384, 385 in sarcoplasmic reticulum, effect of electrical stimulation on (Nayler), 385
Canine sympathetic chain, vascular patterns in (Marcarian and Jenkins), 491
Carcinoma of breast, primary, metastasis to pericardium (Kaplan et al.), 245 (CPC) Cardiac arrhythmias, mechanisms and therapy, 436 (B. Rev.)
catheterization in acquired and congenital abnormalities (in German), 721 (B. Rev.)
in Ebstein's anomaly (Genton and Blount), 413 contour in my cardiopathies attributed to Schizotrypanum cruzi, morphologic and dynamic study, correlation with histologic changes (Anselmi et al.), 626 dyssynergy, concept: paradoxical precordial motion and wasted left ventricular work (Langley et al.), 349 glycosides, chemistry (Lyon and DeGraff), 278 effect on intracellular concentration and distribution of calcium ions (Nayler), 386 hypertrophy, moderate, with clinical hypertension (Kaplan et al.), 245 (CPC) manifestations of hyperparathyroidism, with previously unreported arrhythmia (Voss and Drake), 235 muscle, calcium exchange in, basic mechanism of drug action (Nayler et al.), 379 isolated, inotropic effect of angiotensin and norepinephrine in, influence of mineralocorticoids and cations on (Lefer), 674 output, effect of slowing heart rate by paired or coupled stimulation of atria on (Lister et al.), 362 and pulmonary blood volume in dogs, comparison of three indicator-dilution methods (Sanchez et al.), 665 pacemakers, internal, effect of digitalis in compensated and decompensated patients with (Donoso et al.), 590 pacing, fundamentals (Furman), 261 indications for (Furman), 262 replacement pump, description and findings (Anderson et al.), 92 toxicity of digitalis (Lyon and DeGraff), 710 tube, formation and torsion, in normal human embryo (De la Cruz et al.), 777
Cardioactive drugs, effect on transport of calcium ions across lipid-solvent-aqueous interface (Nayler), 389
Cardiogenic shock, circulatory dynamics of paired pacing in (Goetz et al.), 506 treated with infusion of dextrose solution (Nixon et al.), 843 (Annot.) Cardiomyopathy complicated by acquired cor triventriculare (Cohen et al.), 538 obstructive, hypertrophic, beta-adrenergic blockade in patients with (Cherian et al.), 140 (Annot.)
role of hormones in (in Rumanian), 721 (B. Rev.)
Cardiovascular complications of familial hypercholesterolemic xanthomatosis (Rothbard et al.), 687 diseases, immunologic substances in serum of patients with (Dodson et al.), 221 yearbook, 722 (B. Rev.)
dynamics and ballistocardiography, 437 (B. Rev.)
radiology in acute and chronic Chagas' myocardiopathy (Anselmi et al.), 626 surgery, 436 (B. Rev.)
Cartilaginous metaplasia experimentally induced in heart, histogenesis (Selye et al.), 195
Catecholamines, effect on cardiac contractility in presence of calcium ions (Nayler), 388 secretion and sympathetic nervous responses to emotion in men with and without angina pectoris (Nestel et al.), 227 Catheter, disposable guide for introducing into small vessels (Chernoff and Kreidberg), 716 (Annot.)
for removing stones from ureter, use in removal of iatrogenic foreign body from aorta (Lassers and Pickering), 375
Catheterization, cardiac, in acquired and congenital abnormalities (in German), 721 (B. Rev.)

Death, causes in treated hypertensive patients, study in New Zealand, 1959–1964 (Hodge and Smirk), 441
Deceleration of heart by alternating current, new experimental technique (Lefemine), 202
Decompensated patients with internal cardiac pacemaker, effect of digitalis in (Donoso et al.), 590
Demand pacemaker, influence of extraneous impulses on (Castellanos et al.), 24 pacing of heart (Furman), 270
Deslanoside, rapid-acting glycoside, dosage (Lyon and DeGraff), 563
Desoxycorticosteroid, influence on inotropic effect of angiotensin and norepinephrine in isolated cardiac muscle (Lefer), 674
Dextrose solution, infusion, cardiogenic shock treated with (Nixon et al.), 843 (Annot.)
Dialysis and renal failure, antibiotic persistence during (Lindholm), 841 (Annot.)
Diastolic volume, ventricular left, peripheral arterial dilution curves in appraisal (Lewis et al.), 165
Diet, primary prevention of coronary heart disease by (Rinzler et al.), 287 (Annot.)
Digitalis allergy (Lyon and DeGraff), 712 chemistry (Lyon and DeGraff), 278 dosage (Lyon and DeGraff), 563 effect in compensated and decompensated patients with internal cardiac pacemakers (Donoso et al.), 590 in man, evaluation of criteria for determining (Lyon and DeGraff), 134 indications for use (Lyon and DeGraff), 426 Digitalis—Cont'd
preparations (Lyon and DeGraff), 280 reappraisal (Lyon and DeGraff). Part V, 134; Part VI, 278; Part VII, 426; Part VIII, 563; Part IX, 710; Part X, 835 response in normal adults, orthogonal electrocardiogram as index (Snyder and Pipberger), 640 toxicity (Lyon and DeGraff), 710 treatment (Lyon and DeGraff), 835
Digitalis-induced arrhythmias, concealed, unmasked by electrical stimulation of heart (Castellanos et al.), 484
Digoxin, rapid-acting glycoside, dosage (Lyon and DeGraff), 564
Dilution curves, arterial, peripheral, in appraisal of left ventricular diastolic volume (Lewis et al.), 165
Diphenylhydantoin, hemodynamic effects of (Conn et al.), 500
Dipyridamole, effect on coronary blood flow during propranolol-induced beta-adrenergic blockade (Nayler et al.), 213
Dissociation, atrioventricular with S-A interference (ventricular capture), A-V interference (atrial capture), and reciprocating beating, case of "incomplete" retrograde unidirectional A-V block (Louvros and Costeas), 240
Ductus arteriosus, patent, accompanied by severe pulmonary hypertension (Berlind et al.), 460
Dynamic study of cardiac contour in myocardiopathies attributed to Schizotrypanum cruzi, correlation with histologic changes (Anselmi et al.), 626
Dynamics of left ventricular emptying in hypertrophic subaortic stenosis, cineangiographic and hemodynamic study (Wilson et al.), 4
Dyssynergy, cardiac, concept: paradoxical precordial motion and wasted left ventricular work (Langley et al.), 349

Ebstein's anomaly, complications and course in different age groups (Genton and Blount), 418 spectrum (Genton and Blount), 395
ECHO 9 virus infection, paroxysmal atrial tachycardia associated with (Cherry et al.), 681
Edema, pulmonary, and bilateral pleural effusion (Kaplan et al.), 245 (CPC)
Electric shock, precordial, ventricular arrhythmias after (Donoso et al.), 595
Electrical alternans due to presence of mitral caged ball-valve prosthesis (Weber et al.), 110 stimulation, effect on calcium ions in sarcoplasmic reticulum (Nayler), 385 of heart revealing concealed digitalis-induced arrhythmias (Castellanos et al.), 484 Electrocardiogram and electrolytes, relationship (Surawicz), 814 orthogonal, as index of digitalis response in normal adults (Snyder and Pipberger), 640 Electrocardiographic changes and oxygen consumption in acute salt depletion (Khoyi), 217 characteristics of P pulmonale waves of coronary origin (Gross), 453 effects of hyperpotassemia (Surawicz et al.), 647
findings in Ebstein's anomaly (Genton and Blount), 404
Electrocardiography, primer, 292 (B. Rev.)

Electrolytes and electrocardiogram, relationship (Surawicz), 814 Embolism, pulmonary, acute angiographic diagnosis, evaluation of criteria (Stein et al.), 730 course (Poe et al.), 582
Embryologic considerations in diagnosis of positional anomalies of heart; significance of atrial situs (Shaher et al.), 32 theory for ventricular inversions and their classification (De la Cruz et al.), 777
Emergency replacement of valves in endocarditis (Hurley et al.), 798 Emotion(s) and ischemic heart disease (Minc), 713 (Annot.)
sympathetic nervous and catecholamine secretion responses to, in men with and without angina pectoris (Nestel et al.), 227
Emphysema, pulmonary, in case of rheumatic heart disease (Krakower et al.), 542 (CPC)
Emphysematous patients, blockpnea on effort in, diagnostic challenge (Chevalier), 579
Emptying, ventricular, left, dynamics, in hypertrophic subaortic stenosis, cineangiographic and hemodynamic study (Wilson et al.), 4
Endocarditis, bacterial, isolated systolic click with (LeBauer et al.), 534
pulmonary valve regurgitation secondary to, in heroin addicts (Massumi et al.), 308
emergency replacement of valves in (Hurley et al.), 798
Endomyocardial fibrosis, plantain diets and serotonin as factors in pathogenesis (Shaper), 432 (Annot.)
Endomyocardiopathy, mural, idiopathic, coronary blood flow, energetics, and myocardial metabolism in (Brink and Lewis), 339
Energetics in idiopathic mural endomyocardiopathy (Brink and Lewis), 339 stenosis, acquired, clinical findings in, effect of disease of other valves on (Schattenberg et al.), 322 emergency replacement, in endocarditis (Hurley et al.), 798 leaflet, mitral, anterior, deformed, without mitral insufficiency in persistent common atrioventricular canal, anatomic and angiocardiographic correlations (Schlesinger et al.), 742 pulmonary, regurgitation, secondary to bacterial endocarditis in heroin addicts (Massumi et al.), 308 Valvular aortic stenosis, dynamics of left ventricular emptying in, cineangiographic and hemodynamic study (Wilson et al.), 4 heart disease, congenital and acquired, diagnosis and therapy (Proceedings of 31st Nauheim Continuation Course) (in German), 721 (B. Rev.)

Vascular diseases, spontaneously occurring, in wild rhesus monkeys (Chawla et al.), 85 patterns in canine sympathetic chain (Marcarian and Jenkins), 491 reactivity in essential and renal hypertension in man (Mendlowitz), 121 resistance, increased, in chronic hypertension, nature (Short), 840 (Annot.)
Vasculature, pulmonary, in infants with heart disease, radiologic evaluation (Silove and Steinhart), 181
Vasoactive amines in treatment of shock, 436 (B. Rev.)
Vectorcardiogram, time-normalized correlation with ventricular activation (Boineau et al.), 64
Vectorcardiographic diagnosis of left ventricular hypertrophy, significance of T-loop change in (Murata et al.), 49
Vectorcardiography, symposium on, 437 (B. Rev.)
Vena cava, superior, left, diagnosis by clinical inspection, new physical sign (Colman), 115
Venous catheterization, repeated, in man, analysis of complications (Levin et al.), 475
pulsations, induced, velocity, technique for indirect measurement (Mackay et al.), 17
Ventricular activation, time-normalized correlation with vectorcardiogram (Boineau et al.), 64 arrhythmias after precordial electric shock (Donoso et al.), 595 diastolic volume, left, peripheral arterial dilution curves in appraisal (Lewis et al.), 165 emptying, left, dynamics, in hypertrophic subaortic stenosis, cineangiographic and hemodynamic study (Wilson et al.), 4 fibrillation, recurrent, control by transvenous pacing in absence of heart block (Lew and March), 794
Ventricular—Cont'd
hypertrophy, left, significance of T-loop change in vectorcardiographic diagnosis of (Murata et al.), 49 inversions, embryologic theory and classification (De la Cruz et al.), 777 pre-excitation, 722 (B. Rev.)
septum, normal closure (Mitchell et al.), 334 vulnerability to paired-pulse stimulation during acute coronary occlusion (Han et al.), 79 work, left, wasted, and paradoxical precordial motion, concept of cardiac dyssynergy (Langley et al.), 349 Vessels, coronary, nerve supply to, importance in myocardial ischemia and infarction (Grayson), 570 (Annot.)
great, hemodynamic effects of isotonic solutions rapidly injected into (Krovetz et al.), 525 transposition, corrective surgery for, unusual arrhythmias after (Zuberbuhler and Bauersfeld), 752 small, disposable guide for introducing catheters into (Chernoff and Kreidberg), 716 (Annot.)
Veterans, initial myocardial infarction among: ten-year survival (Beard et al.), 317 Virus disease (Coxsackie) of heart in adults (Smith), 439 infection, ECHO 9, paroxysmal atrial tachycardia associated with (Cherry et al.), 681
Vitamin D as cause of supravalvular aortic stenosis syndrome (Friedman), 718 (Annot.)
Volume, blood, pulmonary, and cardiac output in dogs, comparison of three indicator-dilution methods (Sanchez et al.), 665
diastolic, ventricular, left, peripheral arterial dilution curves in appraisal (Lewis et al.), 165

Waves, P pulmonale, of coronary origin, electrocardiographic characteristics (Gross), 453
venous, pulse, induced, velocity, technique for indirect measurement (Mackay et al.), 17
Wolff-Parkinson-White syndrome, review of contributions to knowledge of (in Italian), 722 (B. Rev.)
Work, ventricular, left, wasted, and paradoxical precordial motion, concept of cardiac dyssynergy (Langley et al.), 349

Xanthines, effect on cardiac contractility in presence of calcium ions (Nayler), 389
Xanthomatosis, hypercholesterolemic, aortic stenosis and myocardial infarction in (Rothbard et al.), 687
X-ray films, medical document to be preserved (Burch and DePasquale), 137 (Annot.)

Yoruba children of Western Nigeria, congenital heart disease in (Caddell and Morton), 431 (Annot.)

Acetaldehyde and ethanol, effects of, on heart (James and Bear), 243

African cardiomyopathy, tryptophan and serotonin levels in patients with, or susceptible to (Reid and Berjak), 337

Analgesic nephropathy in Australia (Burry), 133

Anaphylaxis, effect of heparin on heart in (Dhar, Mukherjee, and Sanyal), 489

Anatomic position of heart, and its relationship to position of chest electrodes (Frank and SVEC-III systems) (Kaneko, Simonson, and Schmitt), 58

Aneurysm, dissecting, distal to coarctation of aorta, with long survival (McCombs and Crocker), 675

Aneurysmal enlargement, giant, and arteriovenous fistula, coronary artery resection for (Meyer et al.), 603

Angina pectoris, propranolol in treatment of (Frieden), 431

Angiography, cerebral, use and abuse in diagnosis of strokes (Marshall), 145

Antiarrhythmic actions of propranolol in dog heart-lung preparation (Somani and Bachand) 222 agent, propranolol as (Frieden), 283

Aorta, bony metaplasia in wall of, in full-term fetus (Thapar, Saigal, and Dass), 261

coarctation of, dissecting aneurysm distal to, with long survival (McCombs and Crocker), 675

Aortic regurgitation, to which late diastolic mitral regurgitation is secondary, its relationship to Austin Flint murmur (Lochaya, Igarashi, and Shaffer), 161 valves, heterograft, for human valve disease (O'Brien and Clarebrough), 135

Arrhythmias, action of diphenylhydantoin on, ECG changes resulting from cerebral stimulation (Hockman, Mauck, and Chu), 256

associated with synchronous pacemaker (Adelman and Lopez), 632

Arteriography, coronary (Hultgren and Abrams), 737

Arteriovenous fistula and aneurysmal enlargement, coronary artery resection for (Meyer et al.), 603

Atrial electrocardiogram, normal, morphologic and quantitative variability in bipolar extremity leads (Brody et al.), 4 enlargement in childhood, electrocardiographic recognition of (Reynolds), 179

fibrillation, chronic, conversion of to sinus rhythm with combined propranolol and quinidine treatment (Stern), 170 flutter, conversion of to sinus rhythm after stimulation of carotid sinus (Gould and Lyon), 853

electrocardiographic patterns at termination of (Rytand), 741 function after cardioversion (Rowlands, Logan, and Howitt), 149

following cardioversion (Ikram, Nixon, and Arcan), 729

Atrioventricular conducting tissue, intracardiac electrocardiogram of (Watson, Emslie-Smith, and Lowe), 66

Atrium, left, ectopic, rhythms originating anteriorly in (Mirowski), 299

Austin Flint murmur, its relationship to late diastolic mitral regurgitation secondary to aortic regurgitation (Lochaya, Igarashi, and Shaffer), 161

Australia, analgesic nephropathy in (Burry), 133

Autopsy for vectorcardiographic diagnosis of myocardial infarction, confirmation by (Simonson, Sotobata, and Richman), 587

Bacteriuria and nonobstructive renovascular disease (Dontas and Marketos), 290

Ballistocardiogram, postexercise, computer method for studying (Jackson and Molina), 513

quantitative ultralow-frequency, discrimination of, in coronary heart disease (Harrison and Talbot), 80

Beta-adrenergic blockade, histochemical and electron microscopic study of heart muscle after (Sun, Burch, and DePasquale), 340

Bilateral pheochromocytoma, application of plasma catecholamine bioassay for tumor localization (Grim et al.), 809

Bipolar extremity leads of normal atrial electrocardiogram, morphologic and quantitative variability in (Brody et al.), 4

Blood volume, pulmonary, response of, to 64 to 114 weeks of intermittent stay at high altitudes (Roy, Bhatia, and Gadhoke), 192

"Brody" effect, qualitative effects of thoracic resistivity variations on interpretation of electrocardiograms (McFee and Rush), 642

Bullet, dislodgment of from sinus of Valsalva by cardiac catheterization (Sommer and Wongthongsri), 92

Calcium, effects of, on isometric tension in isolated heart muscle during coupled pacing (Harrison and Nelson), 663

Cardiac catheter, lack of influence of end and side orifices on venous pressure recording (Dhurandhar et al.), 733 catheterization for dislodgment of bullet from sinus of Valsalva (Sommer and Wongthongsri), 92

Cardiovascular adaptation in diving mammals (Andersen), 295
Cardioversion, atrial function after (Rowlands, Logan, and Howitt), 149 following (Ikram, Nixon, and Arcan), 729 pulmonary edema following (Lindsay), 434
Carotid sinus, conversion of atrial flutter after stimulation of (Gould and Lyon), 853
Catecholamine bioassay for tumor localization, plasma, application of, bilateral pheochromocytoma (Grim et al.), 809
Central nervous system disease after right radical neck dissection, electrocardiographic changes typical for (Hugenholtz), 438 mechanisms mediating cardiac rate and rhythm (Mauck and Hockman), 96 Cerebral angiography, use and abuse of, in diagnosis of strokes (Marshall), 145 stimulation, ECG changes resulting from, III, action of diphenylhydantoin on arrhythmias (Hockman, Mauck, and Chu), 256 Chest electrodes (Frank and SVEC-III systems), relationship to anatomic position of heart (Kaneko, Simonson, and Schmitt), 58
Childhood, electrocardiographic recognition of left atrial enlargement in (Reynolds), 179
Cineangiographic determination, biplane, of left ventricular function, pressure-volume relationships (Rackley et al.), 766
Circulation, collateral, shunting, and re-vascularization (Burch, Miller, and Colcolough), 586
Circulatory and cardiac disorders, compressive, clinical and laboratory correlation (Lange), 419 and respiratory changes in patients with Laennec's cirrhosis of liver (Bashour, McConnell, and Miller), 569 Cirrhosis of liver, circulatory and respiratory changes in patients with (Bashour, McConnell, and Miller), 569
Clinical pathologic conference (Coogan et al.), 820
(Davachi et al.), 271
(Rosner, Lauer, and Rosenthal-Spitzer), 562
Clostridial septicemia, gas gangrene of heart in (Roberts and Berard), 482
Coarctation of aorta, with long survival, dissecting aneurysm distal to (McCombs and Crocker), 675
Collateral circulation, shunting, and re-vascularization (Burch, Miller, and Colcolough), 586 Computer method for studying postexercise ballistocardiogram (Jackson and Molina), 513 model, digital, of vectorcardiogram with distance and boundary effects, simulated myocardial infarction (Selvester et al.), 792 Conducting tissue, human atrioventricular, intracardiac electrocardiogram of (Watson, Emslie-Smith, and Lowe), 66
Coronary arteriography (Hultgren and Abrams), 737 artery disease and methysergide (Hudgson, Foster, and Walton), 854 occlusion, proximal right, sinus arrest in (Lippestad and Marton), 551 resection for giant aneurysmal enlargement and arteriovenous fistula (Meyer et al.), 603 single (Murphy), 557 heart disease, discrimination of quantitative ultralow-frequency ballistocardiogram in (Harrison and Talbot), 80
Countershock, nonsynchronized direct-current (Kreus, Waris, and Salokannel), 286
Coxsackie B viral myocarditis and valvulitis identified in routine autopsy specimens by immunofluorescent techniques (Burch et al.), 13
pericarditis (Bennett and Forbes), 435

Davies' disease, endomyocardial fibrosis, in Uganda (Part I) (Connor et al.), 687
Dextrocardia, congenital, with anterior wall myocardial infarction (Ptashkin, Stein, and Warbasse), 263
Diagnosis, cardiac, straight thoracic spine in (Gooch, Maranhao, and Goldberg), 595
Digital computer model of vectorcardiogram with distance and boundary effects, simulated myocardial infarction (Selvester et al.), 792
Digitalization, acute, effects of cardiovascular dynamics in experimental surgically induced heart block (Kutner and Moss), 71
Dilantin (diphenylhydantoin) and quinidine, effect of, on left ventricular functions in dogs (Mierzwiak, Mitchell, and Shapiro), 780 intravenous, and its solvent, cardiocirculatory changes caused by (Louis, Kutt, and McDowell), 523
Diphenylhydantoin, action of on arrhythmias, ECG changes resulting from cerebral stimulation (Hockman, Mauck, and Chu), 256 (Dilantin) and quinidine, effect of, on left ventricular function in dogs (Mierzwiak, Mitchell, and Shapiro), 780
intravenous, ventricular standstill after (Goldschlager and Karliner), 410

Dipole location and inhomogeneities, combined influence of (Grayzel and Lizzi), 503
Distortions, electrocardiographic, caused by inadequate high-frequency response of direct-writing electrocardiographs (Berson and Pipberger), 208
Dog heart-lung preparation, antiarrhythmic actions of propranolol in (Somani and Bachand), 222

ECG changes resulting from cerebral stimulation, action of diphenylhydantoin on arrhythmias (Hockman, Mauck, and Chu), 256 criteria for P-wave abnormalities, evaluation of (Saunders et al.), 757 Ectopic rhythms originating anteriorly in left atrium (Mirowski), 299
Edema, pulmonary, following cardioversion (Lindsay), 434
Electrocardiogram, atrial, normal, morphologic and quantitative variability in bipolar extremity leads (Brody et al.), 4 exercise, measurement and characteristics of over-all noise content in (Winter, Rautaharju, and Wolf), 324 intracardiac, of human atrioventricular conducting tissue (Watson, Emslie-Smith, and Lowe), 66 qualitative effects of thoracic resistivity variations on interpretation of, "Brody" effect (McFee and Rush), 642 Electrocardiographic changes typical for central nervous system disease after right radical neck dissection (Hugenholtz), 438 patterns at termination of atrial flutter (Rytand) 741 tape recordings, prolonged, inexpensive presentation of data of (Tabatznik, Mower, and Staewen), 377
Electrocardiographs, direct-writing, electrocardiographic distortions caused by inadequate high-frequency response of (Berson and Pipberger), 208
Embolism, pulmonary, acute, I, review (Soloff and Rodman), 710
II, clinical (Soloff and Rodman), 829
Endomyocardial fibrosis in Uganda, Davies' disease, Part I (Connor et al.), 687
Enzymes, certain, measurement of, for diagnosis of experimental intraoperative myocardial infarction (Killen and Tinsley), 496
Ethanol and acetaldehyde, effects of, on heart (James and Bear), 243 Exercise, chronic, effect of, on myocardial function (Crews and Aldinger), 536 electrocardiograms, measurement and characteristics of over-all noise content in (Winter, Rautaharju, and Wolf), 324
External compression, effect of, on murmur and thrill of straight back syndrome (Rubenstein and Johnson), 88

F

Fallot's tetralogy after palliative shunting operations, cardiopulmonary function in (Crawford, Simpson, and McIlroy), 463 hemodynamic effects of propranolol in patients with (Cumming and Carr), 29
Fetus, full-term, bony metaplasia in wall of aorta in (Thapar, Saigal, and Dass), 261
Fibrillation, atrial, chronic, conversion of to sinus rhythm with combined propranolol and quinidine treatment (Stern), 170

G

Gas gangrene of heart in clostridial septicemia (Roberts and Berard), 482
Great vessels, paradoxic splitting of second sound with transposition of (Zuberbuhler, Bauersfeld, and Pontius), 816
Guanethidine or reserpine, used for attenuation of cutaneous vasoconstriction caused by tobacco smoking (Coffman), 229

H

Heart block, experimental, pacemaker attachment to cardiac conduction system in (Hannon, Connolly, and Edwards), 77 surgically induced, effects of acute digitalization on cardiovascular dynamics in (Kutner and Moss), 71 muscle after beta-adrenergic blockade, histochemical and electron microscopic study of (Sun, Burch, and DePasquale), 340 isolated, effects of calcium on isometric tension in, during coupled pacing (Harrison and Nelson), 663
Hemodynamic effects of rapidly injected hypertonic solutions into heart and great vessels (Krovetz, Mitchell, and Neumaster), 453
Hemolysis, mechanical, in patients with valvular heart disease and valve prosthesis (Grosse-Brockhoff and Gehrmann), 137
Heparin, effect of, on heart in anaphylaxis (Dhar, Mukherjee, and Sanyal), 489
Hepatitis, posttransfusion (Grindon, Holland, and Schmidt), 591
Hereditary transmission of patent ductus arteriosus in dog (Patterson and Detweiler), 289
High altitudes, response of pulmonary blood volume to 64 to 114 weeks of intermittent stay at (Roy, Bhatia, and Gadhoke), 192
Hypertension, human, plasma renin concentration in (Brown, Lever, and Robertson), 413 and nephrosclerosis, reappraisal and new theory of renal ischemia (Moore), 730 renal vascular, further experiences (Perloff et al.), 614
Hypertonic solutions, hemodynamic effects of rapid injection into heart and great vessels (Krovetz, Mitchell, and Neumaster), 453
Hypertrophy, left, simplified, clinically applicable vectorcardiographic diagnosis of (Frank lead system) (Upshaw), 749 ventricular, left, diagnosis of, with Polarcardiograph (Dower and Horn), 368 electrocardiographic-autopsy correlations in: simple postmortem index of hypertrophy proposed (Dower, Horn, and Ziegler), 351 scarring of papillary muscles in (Arosemena, Moller, and Edwards), 446
Hypotension syndrome, orthostatic (Lewis and Dunn), 396

I

Immunofluorescent techniques used in routine autopsy specimens to identify Coxsackie B viral myocarditis and valvulitis (Burch et al.), 13

Infarcted myocardium, elevation of ventricular fibrillation threshold after surgical resection of (Sakakibara et al.), 381

Infarction, myocardial, anterior wall, with congenital dextrocardia (Ptashkin, Stein, and Warbasse), 262
associated with shock and severe metabolic stress, transient QRS changes simulating (Shugoll), 402
human, and microcirculatory disturbances (Baroldi and Manion), 173 shock, myocardial, revisited (Cohn), 1 simulated myocardial, digital computer model of vectorcardiogram with distance and boundary effects (Selvester et al.), 792

Inhomogeneities and dipole location, combined influence of (Grayzel and Lizzi), 503

Interventricular septal defects, postinfarction (Jeresaty, Landry, and Stansel), 543

Intraventricular pressure differences induced by pharmacological agents in dogs, nature of (Blundell et al.), 652

Isometric tension, effects of calcium on, in isolated heart muscle during coupled pacing (Harrison and Nelson), 663

Isoproterenol and norepinephrine, effect of myocardial function in experimental cardiogenic shock (Cronin), 387 use of, in treatment of cardiogenic shock (Eichna), 848

K

Korotkoff sounds, components of (Rodbard and Robbins), 278

L

Laennec's cirrhosis of liver, circulatory and respiratory changes in patients with (Bashour, McConnell, and Miller), 569

Leads of normal atrial electrocardiogram, bipolar extremity, morphologic and quantitative variability in (Brody et al.), 4

Learning, how some words prevent it, notes on teaching (Hurst), 858

Left ventricular function, biplane cineangiographic determination of, pressure-volume relationships (Rackley et al.), 766
in dogs, effect of diphenylhydantoin (Dilantin) and quinidine on (Mierzwiak, Mitchell, and Shapiro), 780
hypertrophy, scarring of papillary muscles in (Arosemena, Moller, and Edwards, 446

Liver, Laennec's cirrhosis of, circulatory and respiratory changes in patients with (Bashour, McConnell, and Miller), 569

Mammals, diving, cardiovascular adaptation in (Andersen), 295

Metaplasia, bony, in wall of aorta in full-term fetus (Thapar, Saigal, and Dass), 261

Methysergide and coronary artery disease (Hudgson, Foster, and Walton), 854

Microcirculatory disturbances and human myocardial infarction (Baroldi and Manion), 173

Military personnel, young, myocarditis in (Bell and Murphy), 309

Mitral regurgitation, late, diastolic, secondary to aortic regurgitation, its relationship to Austin Flint murmur (Lochaya, Igarashi, and Shaffer), 161

Myocardial function, effect of chronic exercise on (Crews and Aldinger), 536 of isoproterenol and norepinephrine on, in experimental cardiogenic shock (Cronin), 387 infarction, acute, controlled trial of propranolol in (Balcon et al.), 582 anterior wall, with congenital dextrocardia (Ptashkin, Stein, and Warbasse), 263
associated with shock and severe metabolic stress, transient QRS changes simulating (Shugoll), 402 diagnosis of, confirmation by autopsy (Simonson, Sotobata, and Richman), 587 experimental intraoperation, diagnosis of by measurement of certain enzymes (Killen and Tinsley), 496
human, and microcirculatory disturbances (Baroldi and Manion), 173
shock revisited (Cohn), 1 simulated, digital computer model of the vectorcardiogram with distance and boundary effects (Selvester et al.), 792 threshold, changes in, physiologic and pharmacologic factors in patients with implanted pacemakers (Preston et al.), 235

Myocarditis, viral, Coxsackie B, and valvulitis identified in routine autopsy specimens by immunofluorescent techniques (Burch et al.), 13 in young military personnel (Bell and Murphy), 309

Myocardium, infarcted, an elevation of ventricular fibrillation threshold after surgical resection of (Sakakibara), 381

N

Neck dissection, right radical, followed by electrocardiographic changes typical for central nervous system disease (Hugenholtz), 438

Nephropathy, analgesic, in Australia (Burry), 133

Nephrosclerosis and hypertension, reappraisal and new theory of renal ischemia (Moore), 730

Nephrosis, idiopathic childhood, long-term assessment of steroid treatment of (Arneil and Lam), 584

Nervous system disease, central, after right radical neck dissection, electrical changes typical for (Hugenholtz), 438

Noise content, over-all, in exercise electrocardiograms, measurement and characteristics of (Winter, Rautaharju, and Wolf), 324

Norepinephrine and isoproterenol, effect of, on myocardial function in experimental cardiogenic shock (Cronin), 387

Occlusion, proximal right coronary artery, sinus arrest in (Lippestad and Marton), 551

Open-heart surgery, sickle cell trait complicated by sickle cell thrombi after (Leachman, Miller, and Atias), 268
Orthostatic hypotension syndrome (Lewis and Dunn), 396

P

P-wave abnormalities, evaluation of ECG criteria for (Saunders et al.), 757
Pacemaker(s), attachment to cardiac conduction system in experimental heart block (Hannon, Connolly, and Edwards), 77 catheter, unusual sign of perforation of (Jørgensen, Lyngborg, and Wennevold), 732 implanted, physiologic and pharmacologic factors in patients with, changes in myocardial threshold (Preston et al.), 235 stimuli, unusual patterns of conduction produced by (Mower, Aranaga, and Tabatznik), 24 synchronous, arrhythmias associated with (Adelman and Lopez), 632 Pacing, coupled, effects of calcium on isometric tension in isolated heart muscle during (Harrison and Nelson), 663
Papillary muscles in left ventricular hypertrophy, scarring of (Arosemena, Moller, and Edwards), 446
Parietal block, pathological basis of electrocardiographic pattern of (Entman, Estes, and Hackel), 202
Patent ductus arteriosus in dog, hereditary transmission of (Patterson and Detweiler), 289
Perforation of pacemaker catheter, unusual sign of (Jørgensen, Lyngborg, and Wennevold), 732
Pericarditis, Coxsackie (Bennett and Forbes), 435
Pharmacological agents in dogs, nature of intraventricular pressure differences induced by (Blundell et al.), 652
Pheochromocytoma, bilateral, application of plasma catecholamine bioassay for tumor localization (Grim et al.), 809 safer surgery for patients with (Ross), 443 Plasma catecholamine bioassay for tumor localization, application of, bilateral pheochromocytoma (Grim et al.), 809 renin concentration in human hypertension (Brown, Lever, and Robertson), 413 volume, regulation of (Hyman and Steinfeld), 436
Polarcardiograph for diagnosis of left ventricular hypertrophy (Dower and Horn), 368
Posttransfusion hepatitis (Grindon, Holland, and Schmidt), 591
Pressor agents in treatment of cardiogenic shock (Kuhn), 725
Pressure differences, intraventricular, induced by pharmacological agents in dogs, nature of (Blundell et al.), 652 recording, venous, lack of influence of end and side orifices in cardiac catheters on (Dhurandhar et al.), 733
-volume relationships, biplane cineangiographic determination of left ventricular function (Rackley et al.), 766 Propranolol as an antiarrhythmic agent (Frieden), 283 controlled trial of, in acute myocardial infarction (Balcon et al.), 582 Propranolol—Cont'd
in dog heart-lung preparation, antiarrhythmic actions of (Somani and Bachand), 222 hemodynamic effects of, in patients with Fallot's tetralogy (Cumming and Carr), 29 and quinidine treatment, conversion of chronic atrial fibrillation to sinus rhythm with (Stern), 170 in treatment of angina pectoris (Frieden), 431
Pseudoxanthoma elasticum, cardiac involvement in (Huang et al.), 680
Pulmonary blood volume, response of to 64 to 114 weeks of intermittent stay at high altitudes (Roy, Bhatia, and Gadhoke), 192 edema following cardioversion (Lindsay), 434
embolism, acute, I, review (Soloff and Rodman), 710
II, clinical (Soloff and Rodman), 829
Pulmonic valvular insufficiency, etiology, recognition, and management (Hamby and Gulotta), 110
Pulse wave, true venous, central and peripheral (Mackay), 48

QRS changes, transient, simulating myocardial infarction associated with shock and severe metabolic stress (Shugoll), 402
Quinidine and propranolol treatment, conversion of chronic atrial fibrillation to sinus rhythm with (Stern), 170

Renal ischemia, reappraisal and new theory of, with hypertension and nephrosclerosis (Moore), 730 vascular hypertension, further experiences (Perloff et al.), 614
Renin concentration, plasma, in human hypertension (Brown, Lever, and Robertson), 413
Renovascular disease, nonobstructive, and bacteriuria (Dontas and Marketos), 290
Reserpine or guanethidine, used for attenuation of cutaneous vasoconstriction caused by tobacco smoking (Coffman), 229
Resistivity variations, thoracic, qualitative effects of, on interpretation of electrocardiograms, "Brody" effect (McFee and Rush), 642
Respiratory and circulatory changes in patients with Laennec's cirrhosis of liver (Bashour, McConnell, and Miller), 569
Resuscitation, ventilatory, practical and training aspects of teaching (Nolte and Frey), 134
Re-vascularization, collateral circulation, and shunting (Burch, Miller, and Colcolough), 586

Second sound, paradoxic splitting of, with transposition of great vessels (Zuberbuhler, Bauersfeld, and Pontius), 816
Septel defects, interventricular, postinfarction (Jeresaty, Landry, and Stansel), 543
Serotonin and tryptophan levels in patients with, or susceptible to African cardiomyopathy (Reid and Berjak), 337

Shock, cardiogenic, experimental, effect of isoproterenol and norepinephrine on myocardial function during (Cronin), 387 use of isoproterenol in treatment of (Eichna), 848 myocardial infarction, revisited (Cohn), 1 and severe metabolic stress associated with transient QRS changes simulating myocardial infarction (Shugoll), 402 Shunting operations, palliative, cardiopulmonary function in Fallot's tetralogy after (Crawford, Simpson, and McIlroy), 463 Sickle cell thrombi, complication of sickle cell trait after open-heart surgery (Leachman, Miller, and Atias), 268 trait complicated by sickle cell thrombi after open-heart surgery (Leachman, Miller, and Atias), 268 Sinus arrest in proximal right coronary artery occlusion (Lippestad and Marton), 551 carotid, conversion of atrial flutter to, after stimulation of (Gould and Lyon), 853 rhythm with combined propranolol and quinidine treatment, conversion of chronic atrial fibrillation to (Stern), 170 conversion of atrial flutter to, after stimulation of carotid sinus (Gould and Lyon), 853 of Valsalva, dislodgment of bullet from, by cardiac catheterization (Sommer and Wongthongsri), 92
Smoking, tobacco, as cause of cutaneous vasoconstriction, attenuation of, by reserpine or guanethidine (Coffman), 229
Stenosis and cardiac valvular fusion, mechanism of (Oka and Angrist), 37
Steroid treatment of idiopathic childhood nephrosis, long-term assessment of (Arneil and Lam), 584
Straight back syndrome, effect of external compression on murmur and thrill of (Rubenstein and Talbot), 88
Stress, metabolic, severe, and shock associated with transient QRS changes simulating myocardial infarction (Shugoll), 402
Strokes, diagnosis of, use and abuse of cerebral angiography (Marshall), 145
Survival, long, with dissecting aneurysm distal to coarctation of aorta (McCombs and Crocker), 675
Synchronous pacemaker, arrhythmias associated with (Adelman and Lopez), 632

Tachycardias with alternation of ventricular complexes (Scherf and Bornemann), 667
Tape recordings, prolonged electrocardiographic, inexpensive presentation of data of (Tabatznik, Mower, and Staewen), 377
Teaching, notes on, how some words prevent learning (Hurst), 858 ventilatory resuscitation, practical and training aspects (Nolte and Frey), 134 Thoracic resistivity variations, qualitative effects of, on interpretation of electrocardiograms, "Brody" effect (McFee and Rush), 642 spine, straight, in cardiac diagnosis (Gooch, Maranhao, and Goldberg), 595
Tobacco smoking as cause of cutaneous vasoconstriction, attenuation of, by reserpine or guanethidine (Coffman), 229
Transposition of great vessels, paradoxic splitting of second sound with (Zuberbuhler, Bauersfeld, and Pontius), 816
Tryptophan and serotonin levels in patients with, or susceptible to African cardiomyopathy (Reid and Berjak), 337
Tumor localization, application of plasma catecholamine bioassay for, bilateral pheochromocytoma (Grim et al.), 809

U

Uganda, endomyocardial fibrosis in (Davies' disease) (Connor et al.), 687

V

Valve disease, human, heterograft aortic valves for (O'Brien and Clarebrough), 135 heterograft aortic, for human valve disease (O'Brien and Clarebrough), 135 prosthesis and valvular heart disease, mechanical hemolysis in patients with (Grosse-Brockhoff and Gehrmann), 137 Valvular fusion, cardiac, and stenosis, mechanism of (Oka and Angrist), 37 heart disease and valve prosthesis, mechanical hemolysis in patients with (Grosse-Brockhoff and Gehrmann), 137
Valvulitis and Coxsackie B viral myocarditis identified in routine autopsy specimens by immunofluorescent techniques (Burch et al.), 13
Vascular hypertension, renal, further experiences (Perloff et al.), 614 patterns, rapid method for studying them three dimensionally and histologically (Marcarian et al.), 219
Vasoconstriction, cutaneous, caused by tobacco smoking, attenuation of, by reserpine or guanethidine (Coffman), 229
Vectorcardiogram with distance and boundary effects, digital computer model of, simulated myocardial infarction (Selvester et al.), 792
Vectorcardiographic diagnosis of left ventricular hypertrophy (Frank lead system), simplified, clinically applicable (Upshaw), 749
myocardial infarction, confirmation by autopsy (Simonson, Sotobata, and Richman), 587
Vectorcardiography, new display in (Brinberg), 855 Venous pressure recording, lack of influence of end and side orifices in cardiac catheters on (Dhurandhar et al.), 733 pulse wave, true, central and peripheral (Mackay), 48
Ventilatory resuscitation, practical and training aspects of teaching (Nolte and Frey), 134
Ventricular beats, early, premature, repetitive ventricular response, and ventricular fibrillation (Dolara), 332 complexes, alternation of with tachycardias (Scherf and Bornemann), 667 depolarization, effect on sequence of ventricular repolarization (Christian and Scher), 530

Ventricular—Cont'd
fibrillation, early premature ventricular beats, and repetitive ventricular response (Dolara), 332 threshold after surgical resection of infarcted myocardium, and elevation of (Sakakibara et al.), 381 function, left, biplane cineangiographic determination of, pressure-volume relationships (Rackley et al.), 766
in dogs, effect of diphenylhydantoin (Dilantin) and quinidine on (Mierzwiak, Mitchell, and Shapiro), 780
hypertrophy, left, diagnosis of, with Polarcardiograph (Dower and Horn), 368 Ventricular hypertrophy, left—Cont'd simplified, clinically applicable vectorcardiographic diagnosis of (Frank lead system) (Upshaw), 749 repolarization, effect of ventricular depolarization on sequence of (Christian and Scher), 530 response, repetitive, ventricular fibrillation, and early premature ventricular beats (Dolara), 332 standstill after intravenous diphenylhydantoin (Goldschlager and Karliner), 410
